“ The first time I met Carl was when I became engaged to my husband, Walt Fitzpatrick. Carl was a long-time friend of his and his parents since around 1965. He came to our wedding in 1974 in South GA. Carl was family. He visited family members often and when we needed him, Carl came. He was always so positive and pleasant. He could tell about memories in such an endearing voice. Carl will be missed. He will always be remembered with love. Donna and Walt Fitzpatrick
