“ Dear Mrs. Tate and family,

We would like to offer our sincere condolences at this most sorrowful time. Our family has such fond memories of being neighbors with your family on Cloverhurst Drive. Carla was a lovely and sweet girl who grew into a beautiful and loving woman. I know she will be incredibly missed by all who loved her. Again, our deepest sympathy to you and yours.

Sincerely,

Marge Gough and family

“ Though I've not talked with Carla in a very long time, I must say she was always such a very lovely person. We grew up together in East Point and she was always kind to everyone. My heart goes out to her entire family. Her passing leaves us without a very special lady, but God has an angel by his side to help all us become better people. Sincerely, David Gregory
