“ To the Family,

Carole was a delight to many people over the years. Her friendship was always steadfast, and she remained a friend throughout the years after our time at Rogers Construction. Her laughter and character will be missed by all.

“ My deepest sympathy for your loss. Carole's light was always the brightest and her smile was always the largest in the room. I worked with her over forty years ago as a young upstart and she guided me through some difficult times in my career and life.

Even though it might be years between encounters she always remembered me and we always had a good laugh about our lives.

She and all of you will be in my thoughts and prayers.
