

Carolyn H Fields

July 28, 1928 - May 2, 2024

Carolyn H. Fields, a beloved member of the Palmetto community, peacefully passed away in her sleep, at her home on May 2, 2024. She was born on July 29, 1928, in Montgomery, Alabama to the late John Andrew and Clara Catherine Hale. Carolyn was 95 years old at the time of her passing. Carolyn met her beloved husband, James H. Fields, at a Capitol Heights Methodist Church picnic in Montgomery, while he was stationed at Maxwell Air Force Base. They married on March 26, 1947 and their marriage spanned an impressive 73 years and 5 days until Jim's passing on March 31, 2020. Throughout her life, Carolyn served as an inspiration to all who knew her. She was a dedicated and hardworking businesswoman, beginning her entrepreneurial journey by purchasing her first fabric store in Wetumka, Alabama in 1981. Her passion for fabrics led her to open a second store in Palmetto, Georgia, before consolidating both into "Palmetto Fabrics" in Peachtree City, where she operated successfully for 18 years. Carolyn's keen eye for fashion and her love for fabrics such as Liberty of London, Pendleton Wools, and bridal attire silks made her store a popular destination for clients throughout Georgia. In addition to her professional accomplishments, Carolyn was a devoted member of Palmetto First United Methodist Church for an impressive 70 years. She shared her musical talents as a choir member and dedicated Sunday School teacher for 32 years. Carolyn also served on various committees within the church, including the Pastor Parish Relations and administrative board.

Carolyn will be deeply missed by her sons Stephan Alan Fields (Cookie) and Kenneth Hale Fields (Liz), daughter Mary-Catherine Fields, grandchildren Brian Andrew Fields (Dianna), Jenny Maddox (Brandon), Melissa Latil (Nathan), Stephanie Rittenhouse, and great-grandchildren Oliver, Ian, Noah, Elle, Jake, Harper, Dalton, Ritt, and Wyatt.

The family will receive friends Friday, May 10, 2024 from 5:00 until 7:00 p.m. at Parrott Funeral Home & Crematory. A celebration of Carolyn's life will be held on Saturday, May 11, 2024, at 2 o'clock at Palmetto First United Methodist Church, officiated by Sid Chapman. Interment will follow at Holly Hill Memorial Park, where she will find eternal rest beside her beloved husband and her son, Andy. In her memory, Carolyn leaves behind a legacy of love, dedication, and unwavering faith that will continue to inspire all who had the privilege of knowing her.

“ Miss Carolyn was a special LADY. I have many fond memories from the Fabric Store. Miss those days.

At one point, the need for a very special dress arose. I wanted to shine at a conference in New Orleans. Miss Carolyn came to my rescue and helped create that dress. Just stunning. She asked for a picture of me modeling it for a store advertisement. Think I still have the beautiful garment packed up after many, many years. Parting with it was not an option. Thank you Miss Carolyn, you will always have a place in my heart.

“ I was so sorry to hear about Mrs. Fields. She was a very nice person and will be missed. She was always so nice to me. She came and sit with me at the hospital when my mom passed away. She always had that special smile. Sorry I will be out of town this weekend and can't come. Y'all will be in my thoughts and prayers. Remember the good memories of her.

“ Dear Family, I send my sympathy. My prayers are with you all. Carolyn was very special to me, such a blessing over the many years I knew her, always so friendly, so nice in every way. A wonderful neighbor all down through the many years. She was a great friend and supporter of my ministry over the years. She will be missed greatly. Today she is more alive than she has ever been. She is home. May God bless you all and give comfort as only He can.

“ Dear Family,
I have been so blessed for many years, to have the privilege of not only being able to keep Carolyn's hair looking beautiful but also to call her my friend. Our many conversations over the last 40 plus years will be greatly missed along with her dry wit that always made me laugh! I will treasure the memories that we made together in my shop! My thoughts and prayers are with you all!

Carolyn and Jim were most active in the Delta Golden Wings pilot organization. That is where my wife and I got to enjoy visiting with them at annual reunions and when we had a local get-together. We found them both most pleasant and enjoyable to converse with. As current organization secretary, I, on behalf of our organization, send sympathy to each survivor. Carolyn would want each survivor, as sad as loved ones passing is, to remember her for all the wonderful love and tireless efforts she made to each of you during her lifetime. May God's gracious blessings be with each of you at this time of grief. God granted her an active, long life of love for each of you.
