

Carolyn Kuter

February 1, 1945 - November 27, 2013

Biography

Carolyn (Nightengale) Kuter passed away Wednesday, November 27, 2013 at the age of sixty-eight.

Carolyn was born February 1, 1945, in Fairview, Oklahoma to Walter and Nora (Lau) Nightenale. She married Roger Kuter August 10, 1968, and together they had two daughters, Joy Michele Kuter of Alaska, and Amber Dawn Connally of Marietta, Georgia.

She attended elementary school in Clinton, Oklahoma, graduated from Corn Bible Academy, Corn, Oklahoma, and attended two years of college in Garland, Texas.

Until health issues developed, Carolyn was active in their local churches serving as church pianist for 18 years, Minister of Music for two years, and many more activities in the church.

She was employed as an Administrative Assistant for the State of Georgia for 12 years, and together with Roger served as Group Leaders (House Parents) for the Georgia Baptist Children's Home in Palmetto, Georgia. After her sight began to fail, she retired on medical disability from the Children's Home in 1997.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Walter and Nora Nightengale, and step-parents Bill and Agatha Wohlgumuth.

Carolyn is survived by her husband, Roger; two daughters, Michele, and Amber; three grandchildren, Tyler, Kody, Sierra; two great-grand children, Natalie and Adrian; brother, Larry and his wife, Jean; nephew Kevin and his wife Sherry; and her niece, Lisa and her husband, Wayne. Three great-nephews and one great-niece...and many family and friends.

Services will be held at Heatherwood Baptist Church in Riverdale, Georgia on Monday, December 2, 2013. Interment will follow at Georgia Memorial Cemetery in Marietta, Georgia. The family will receive friends Sunday evening from 5:00 until 7:00 p.m. at Parrott Funeral Home and Crematory, 770-964-4800.
