“ Carolyn Oliver and her family were my next door neighbors growing up in East Point, GA. As a teenager, I used to roll and style Carolyn's hair nearly every week and she seemed to be pleased to have me do that. I will never forget that lovely smile of hers. God bless her and Jack as they are now reunited with our Lord Jesus Christ. The Oliver family made our neighborhood such a great place to grow up. I thank them for their testimony.

“ Carolyn was my cousin but I always thought of her as my aunt. Her husband Jack, was my father's first cousin. Linda and I were born in the same month in the same year. Carolyn was one on the nicest people I have ever known, along with my Mom. Carolyn welcomed everyone. She was a great cook, and always fun to be around. She was a faithful servant of God, and she was cherished by all that knew her.
