“ Happy Sister, it's hard for me to believe you are gone. Your cheerful smile is so fresh in my memories and your love for God, to be in His presence. I am visualizing you at your usual seat at Tesano Baptist Church beaming with smiles, singing to His glory during Travailing Hour on Tuesdays. Last time we parted after Travailing Hour, you invited me to your 70th Birthday party which had been scheduled for December though the actual date was in September. Man proposes but God disposes; He knows best. May He hide you under His wings. Trusting that God willing, we will meet in heaven.

“ Auntie Cecilia was a well known figure at where she fellowshipped Tesano Baptist Church, Accra. She was a lady of grace, full of charm and generosity. I admired her for strength of character and matter of fact nature. She always wore a smile and would go the extra mile to help others. Auntie Ceci was like family from New Achimota days and became a special daughter of my late mother. An industrious woman and a tower of strength to be admired. I thank God for giving her to us. Rest well in the bosom of the Lord.
