*Cheryl,
I didn't know Chad for very long. I meet him at camp stepping stones. Chad made camp an unforgettable experience. It's really unfortunate the two times I went to Atlanta we didn't plan well enough to come visit him. He was a great man and friend I just found out today. I would like to visit him sometime if you were willing to give me that information
And most important i'm sorry for your loss. R.I.P Chad*

I am also a friend from camp and just found out. Chad and I were close friends at camp and sadly since leaving stepping stone our lives drifted apart. Chad was the life of the party and the campers and the counselor loved him. He had a amazing way of connecting to the campers and even on the toughest of days could bring a smile to us all. I have only wonderful stories to tell about Chad. Camp would not have been the same without him. He will forever have a very special place in my heart.

I am very sorry for your loss.

“ *My heart is so saddened by your loss, Cheryl & Mike. The pain your family must be enduring may seem unbearable, but your faith will help get you through this. You have many friends who will shower you with compassion & love. Sweet memories of Chad will become balm for your tender hearts. I only knew him for a short time, but his happiness was infectious & his lively spirit contagious! He had a servant heart & it was a delight to be his Youth Minister. My life has been blessed by knowing him and your lovely family. May God shower you with peace, love & compassion as you navigate new waters of loss and grief. My thoughts and prayers are with you! With love, 'Ms. Nickie' *

“ Chad was a sharp young man who's radiant energy was very affluential to everyone in his atmosphere. His positive outlook was infectious to those around him and he always seemed to find a "Chad" type of way to get people to laugh and enjoy his interactions. I pray that your family may find some peace amongst themselves in this difficult time and find the time to embrace your memory in an inspirational fashion. Thank you Chad for all you have inspired in me and may you rest in peace my friend....
