“ Chad was my roommate in the barracks. We spent day and night together and became very close. We never lost touch over the years and we would have long conversations on the phone about twice a year. I will miss those, I'll miss his hysterical sense of humor. I'll miss a lot. Still gutted. Jay B.

“ I met Chad through my brother, Doug, and he truly became “a brother from another mother”. Anytime Doug would say, “Chad is coming over,” it always put me in a good mood and he elevated our gatherings, whether that be on an average Friday evening at my parents or at the lake cabin or on a Thanksgiving or Christmas. Chad was so special and he'll be very missed. Love and condolences to all his family and friends. Love, Laura Huie
