“ I can't believe that you are gone Chad. I had not seen him much in recent years, but I always thought of him as a good friend and one of the most fun people to be around. I will always remember your wit and humor and how you were always the one willing to help out when someone was in need.

I remember that you were a volunteer after the hurricane, even going so far that you injured yourself. But still you were in such good spirits and not one bit deterred from volunteering again.

“ It's hard to believe that after almost 12 years of having your friendship, full of your wittiness, your snarkiness and your ability to make me laugh-while always listening has come to an end. For now.  @tchadbruce "Everywhere I go, Every smile I see, I know you are there, Smilin' back at me, Dancin' in moonlight, I know you are free, Cuz I can see your star-Shinin' down on me" -JanetJackson

“ *You'll be missed Chad Bruce here on earth. Thank you for helping with Nannie these last two years. I'm so glad you came from NYC to spend time with us family. I know we are Cuzzins by marriage , but I always felt a connection with you. You made us laugh time after time for many years. I will miss your sweet soul texting me with your Bitmoji. I'm so glad I saved those messages to go back to read and see your great sense of humor come backs!! You were always one step ahead of me with those messages! When I need a laugh, I'll go back and read them. It's still doesn't seem real.. we love you ❤️ your Cuzzins Marty , Tracey, and Parker Davis 11-17-17

“ So very sad to hear about Chad. I taught him at Landmark Christian and we kept in touch a little over the years. Although I didn't know him as an adult, it is clear that he came into his own, still making people laugh and he clearly was a great friend to many. He was an awfully special kid and it is great to hear that he grew up to be an awfully special grown-up. Love ya Chad.

“Some people come into our lives, leave footprints on our hearts, and we are never the same.”

This was Chad...

I was so saddened to hear about Chad...he will be missed. I feel very blessed to have known him, worked with him, and truly enjoyed his wonderful sense of humor. My heartfelt condolences to Chad's family, many, many friends, and to all those fortunate enough to have crossed paths with him.

Rest in Peace

“ I was so incredibly honored and blessed to have shared Savannah with you last week, among other adventures. You are a beautiful soul and I'm so broken to have lost such an amazing friend. You inspire me to be better, and I will always remember your positive spirit and laughs. You never judged me; you just cared without asking for anything in return. I adore you, Sugar Bear! :) Love always, Laurie Nicoletti

“ Crushed! Having heard the news on Sunday. So completely saddened. You were a beautiful soul, and a loving friend. I will miss you. It was hard enough having you move to GA. Still so hard to believe. I will always remember the laughter at MCA, the fun with your visits to Toronto, and our bantering over the years! Goodbye my friend.

“ He was a nice boy when I knew him and made funny jokes. I went with him to Savannah one year (1992-1993) when he sang with the All-State Chorus. He was the only volunteer to help us move into our house when we arrived from Florida in order to teach at Landmark Christian school. He was a good singer. He sang the lead in an operetta we did with the Middle School chorus, I even let him wear my band conductor's uniform for the part. I awarded him the annual music award in 1993. Sad. He will be remembered.

Thank you! for your share. I enjoyed reading it. Im sure Chad touched a lot of lives through his sweet spirit, kind words & acts of kindness. My husband helped raise him when he was a small child with his Mom. I witness the deep love he had for him shortly after I meet him & his beautiful family. He will be missed & his legacy will live on for ever. So Happy he went to Landmark Christian School as our two children did too, Landmark was was our girls second home for all together 14 years. Awesome teachers & staff that backed up our christian values with a great education to boot. They made life time friends as well as my husband & I did too. Blessings, Libby Belcher

From the moment we met, we laughed... A LOT! I hoped you wouldn't go to NYC & we could work side by side but off you went. So thrilled that I was able to spend some time with you last summer while I was in Georgia. You are & always will be the BEST! Made me laugh even when I didn't want to - just brightened everyone's day. Everyone is so lucky to have had you as a part of their lives - I wish I could have had as many years BUT I am so blessed & thankful for the time I was given. I miss you Chadling aka The Chad aka Ma'am! LOL!!! Save a seat for me...

*I've never had the chance to meet Chad in person, as I live in Italy, but I have clear memories of how lovely and nice he was, by phone or email. The first day of my new job, he was there, sending me a good luck note. I've always felt I had a friend, on the other side of the Ocean. I am grateful I've had the opportunity to share some time with him, even only virtually. I will bring his memory with me, and treasure it.
Thank you Chad!*

Ciao
