We all loved Bo and his smile and laughter. What I will remember most is that Bo would try his best to help others who might have a need that he felt he could meet. Bo was always showing concern for the people who could be, better than what they thought they could be. Truly a man that God has used to "show" the real effect Jesus can have on a person, when he is willing to follow the example Jesus set for us. Thank God for Bo. Please know that Jeannine and I have, and will be praying for this family

*“ I am sorry to learn of Charle’s death. He played football at Walker. I was the manager.
Once when he got smacked in a tackle and probably had a concussion, I rode in the ambulance with him.
I know he is with God now.
