

Charles Edward Brock

October 16, 1917 - July 3, 2015

Charles Edward "Ed" Brock, passed away peacefully July 3, 2015. Ed was born October 16, 1917 in Fairburn, GA, and has been a long-time resident of Norfolk, VA. He is preceded in death by his wife, Velma of 60 years; his brother and 4 sisters. Mr. Brock is survived by 3 children, Janice Flower, Ed Brock and Deadri Horan; six grandchildren; 3 ½ great grandchildren; and 1 sister, Pallie McClure of Fairburn . Mr. Brock loved his family, friends and neighbors. His life was enriched by golfing, gardening, growing vegetables, his church family and sharing with all. His later years were shared with precious friends that played Acey Ducey, Tuesday lunches with the Deacons, friends and relatives visiting for pizza or Doug's Hot Dogs. Ed Brock's humor and sense of fun were his hallmark. Mr. Brock was a member of Ocean View Baptist Church, where he served as Deacon and many other responsibilities over the years. He always had a pocketful of candy. He was a member of Atlantic Lodge #2 with Norfolk Scottish Rite and Arab Patrol of the Khedive Temple, a member of Fleet Reserve and American Legion. Mr. Brock, was a WWII and Korean War veteran, serving 22 years in the Navy. His expertise in Communication allowed him to work as the Communications Director of Norfolk Naval Supply Center for 20 years. He communicated his love of country and the Navy with all. We Love you Dad, and Grandpa. Graveside services for Mr. Brock will held Saturday, July 11, 2015 at 11 o'clock at Holly Hill Memorial Park with Dr. Oscar Cope officiating. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Ocean View Baptist Church, 9504 Selby Place,
