“ Our heart goes out to the whole Cantrell family. Some of my best memories will always be time spent on the golf course with Charles and Bryan, or simply sitting around and learning about all the new recruits for the Tide each year, and which SEC teams might be a threat for the current season. Charles will be dearly missed by me and my girls. Charles gave my wife Cyndi some seeds for a Red Cypress Hummingbird vine 7 years ago and she harvests the seeds and regrows it every year. We just call them Charles' seeds as it's written on the seed envelope.

“ Great American Coach, was my coach as kid playing Football. Taught good values as part of sports. He's teaching led me to military service, a law enforcement career, and US Homeland Security. He made a positive difference in the lives of hundreds of boys playing sports in the south Fulton area. RIP
