“ We will miss Charles, he and I grew up together. Charles was with me when I met my wife, Marlene. I was in the Navy stationed at Memphis, Tenn. and Charles had taken me to th Bus Station in Atlanta when I first laid eyes on Marlene. I thought she was the best looking thing I had ever seen and I told Charles that I was going to marry that girl. He said you are crazy, you don't even know her. It just so happened that we were on the same Bus leaving Atlanta, she was going to Birmingham, Ala. and I was returning to Memphis, Tnn. We have been married 46 wonderful years. Charles may you rest in peace my friend.
