“ Cathy and family, Our hearts break for you in this time of mourning but we know that Charles is no longer suffering and is in living in glory with Jesus now. He's gone too soon but our lives have been blessed by knowing him. We really got to know him in NC during our moves and his handyman skill set when we moved to the townhouse. He'll always be a part of our Army family and just know we are lifting you guys up in our prayers. God Bless. Chris & Renee Bagley

“ So many wonderful memories of Charles helping out youth with Wednesday morning pancakes before school and other youth events. His Mr. fixer could do anything water, electric, masonry, lawn, carpentry and Charles did it with always excellent both in church and in home. I recall several times when we talked about a project and Charles would listen and say "well I hear you jim, but what about this way or that way". Cathy and family, thank you so much for sharing Charles with us (me). God's comfort and HIS peace be with yall.
