“ Please accept my deepest sympathy . No bond is as great as that between a parent and a child. Grief can be so hard but our special memerios can help us cope and bring us comfort. The Bible deccribe death as "the last enemy". It breaks into our lives often completely unprepared. The Bible offer hope [Isaiah 25:8] John 5:28-29] Revelation 21 : 4] Please visit www.jw.org for more comfort from the Bible to deal with your grief.

“ I never had the chance to meet Jordan, but we had a mutual friend and as I heard more about him my heart immediately had a place for him. I prayed for him often over the past year. That he would go on to find great successes and accomplishments. When I heard the news this morning a piece of my heart broke. I am sorry that I never had the chance to look him in the eye and tell him all the things I hoped and prayed for him.

I am praying for your family during this difficult time.

“ Tabby, Cindy and family of Jordan,

The loss of a child has to be one of the most horrific times a family can bear. It's not supposed to happen...we are supposed to go first.

I know your hears are breaking in losing dear Jordan.

Please know my thoughts, love and prayers are with you this day and in the times following.

Love you all, Sister

“ I wanted to share my deepest condolences with the friends and family of Jordan. Losing a loved one is a terrible pain to suffer. I hope the promise at John 5:28, 29 may bring you some comfort. There we are assured we can have a chance to see all our dear loved ones again. I pray this hope can serve as even a little comfort during this trying time.
