“ Charles was one of the finest Christian men I knew. He taught our Sunday School class for many years and his and Connie’s sense of humor was so incredible. He always had a big smile on his face. Charles loved Connie and his family so much. I feel that when he embraced our Lord in Heaven, our Lord said, “Well done my good and faithful servant”. Connie and family, I will be praying that God will bring you peace and comfort. Lisa Webb

“ Where do I begin? And there is simply no ending to the words I would like to say to express my deepest sympathy to you all in the loss of my dear Friend Charlie! Seldom do you come across someone that truly has a heart as big as all outdoors, such is the man, Charlie.

Isaiah 43:1 says "But now thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, And he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine." Christmas Day, the day to celebrate our Lord's birth, Charlie heard his name called like he had never heard before.

Charlie always had time to sit and talk, no matter how rushed anyone was. I have no doubt when I too hear my name called by the one who redeemed me, I will step into heaven and Charlie will say, "Dennis, come on in, sit down for a minute, let's have a cup of coffee."
