“ I just found out today (5/2/2022) that Cheryl had passed.

I knew Cheryl for many years while we were both working in the Fulton County Courthouse complex. She was an Assistant Solicitor for years and later became Chief Assistant Solicitor of Fulton County. We both retired and I lost track of her in the years that followed, although she did tell me that she and her husband had bought a country place in Moreland, GA., and were enjoying retirement and farming. After that, I didn't hear much from her, but I believe it was because of her long-term failing health.

She was one of the most honest, honorable and hard working people I ever met in public service. She had a great sense of humor and an immensely kind spirit.

She was just the kind of person you would want in the criminal justice system, because she was fair, decent, and incorruptible.

I regret that I never got another chance to see and speak with her over all these years.

She was a wonderful friend.

May God speed her to Eternity.

“ Cheryl was my lifelong friend. I do not remember meeting her. She was a year older and taught me many things thru out our lifetime. I would wait for her at my backyard fence to see her coming home from kindergarten . We went to Peeples Street Elementary and Brown High School together. I would tease her she got to experience things first because she was older, like driving , Medicare and now she has crossed into the Pearly Gates of Heaven first. I know she'll be waiting for me to tell me all about it and to “show me the ropes” as she always did. Rest In Peace my sweet friend.
