“ I met Cheryl at an Emmaus weekend where when she found out it was my birthday, she took off the earrings she had on, wrapped them in a sheet of paper and put them at my table where I was sitting so I would have a birthday present. I had never met someone so giving and it meant so much to me. Cheryl has gone with me to see doctors and prayed over me for healing. Her prayers are wonderful and she always gave them to anyone who needed them. I will miss her laugh and prayers and upbeat spirit but I know she is in God's hands and smiling at him.

“ I never had the honor to meet this beautiful woman. But I know her precious daughter Jenny. Jenny shared something with me her mother shared one morning on hospice. She said she upset God hadn't taken her home yet and that she guessed God still had a purpose for her here. Those words coming from a stranger pierced my soul. It made an impact on the goals for my life and the peace I want when God calls me home. Thank you for Touching my soul through your daughter and the words you spoke. I will strive to have that blessed assurance in my relationship with Jesus. I know All of Heaven is rejoicing

“ I worked with Cheryl for many years. She was a joy to know. I have many good memories working with her at PCA. She was the sweetest Christian friend. God Bless you Billy, Jennie, Angie, Hal & family. May God give you peace 🙏✝️🙏

Carol Nestlehutt - April 19, 2021 at 04:20 PM

One of my favorite stories that mom told me about working at PCA was when she was writing something about her job and every time she wrote the word job she would end up writing joy. And she sat there and thought about that and said “it really was a joy not a job!” She truly loved what she did and always found a way to infuse her positive spirit in to everything!
