“ Oh the memories I have with you I would be here all day typing I have so many. I miss you so much mommy. There is not a day that goes by that I don't think about you. The day you died you took a part of me with you life is not the same without you. I often feel lost and alone although I know I have family that love me and who are there for me but I need my mommy. You've been gone 3 years now and the pain is still as bad as it was the day you died I will never be the same again. I wish I could go back in time and change things I wish I would have made more time for you I hate myself for not being there for you more because I chose to work so much I regret not taking time off to spend with my family im so sorry mama I regret not answering the phone when you called because I hate talking on the phone I should have answered more but I didn't and now ill never get to talk to you again im sorry I took you for granted mama I thought you were gonna be around forever I never in a million years thought I'd have to say goodbye to my mama at the age of 50 you were taken from me way too soon mama but you will never be forgotten fly high my sweet brown eyed girl. I love you to the moon & back.

Love your angel,
Alesia

“ Hey beautiful, I have way to many memories to even get started. We have worked together and lived together, and have so many matching tattoos. I watched you give birth to my niece. I love you so much and I'm going to miss you. I never dreamed I would get this call. But I want you to have a table waiting on me sis. You will NEVER be forgotten 💔💔
