“ Patty and family, ”

I'm so sorry I'm missing the service for your mom. I know it will be sweet. It was an absolute honor and privilege to be involved in her care. I pray that you find peace and comfort in precious memories. Much love and hugs to you.

Love,

*Holly Blair

“ Certainly, out of the most treacherous beginnings, God grants us the grace of experiencing some of the most beautiful flowers. Christl is an illustration of this to us. May we all take a page from this wonderful and sweet woman who found friends wherever she found a place to walk. May the grace and peace of the Sweet Holy Spirit guide the hearts of Christl's family and close friends. We are praying for you.

“ Although I only met Christl in person once, once was enough! From that moment on, we became friends! Distance did not interfere with our friendship as we talked on the phone daily and I always felt as I was there in person talking to her. Christl and I shared many laughs, deep conversations, and I always told her to send her "counseling" bill in the mail to me. She was most definitely one of the most generous and kind hearted people I have ever met! I'll most certainly miss our daily talks, I already do, I'll just be talking to her differently now. Heaven has gained an angel for sure. I'll miss you sweet Christl!

I am so happy that Christl and I got to know each other during the last years of her life. She was a strong woman with a wealth of common sense and a love of life. More than anything she loved her daughter Patty and spoke of her often. She was so proud of her! My heart goes out to you and your family Patty. She will watch over you always and Dad will be taking good care of her. ❤️
