“ I am so saddened to hear that my wonderful nephew Christopher passed over. He always would make me smile and my Mother adored him. I will miss him. His wonderful smile and sense of humor. When Chris was younger he would come to Florida to stay awhile. I always hoped that he would do that again. I have a Blue bathrobe that he sent me for a Christmas and I think of him when I wear it, now it has a special meaning. He loved his Mom and his dog. I love him very much and remember the day he was born. I pray he is at peace.

“ My dearest son and only child. I miss you so much. I'll cherish the wonderful excursions we made to the beach and museums, eating out especially the Sushi dinners. I'm so grateful I have your art and photos you left behind. I'm taking good care of Winnie. Rest in peace my child. I'll always Love You. Mom

“ Christopher was a good nephew to me. I will miss him sending me messages and sharing things he enjoyed in nature. He was thoughtful and sent me gifts he thought I would really like. I enjoyed the months he lived with me after my husband died, he was good company. We had fun going places together, parks, restaurants, and shopping in Atlanta. Chris was very talented. He was an excellent artist. He loved to paint and draw, and he loved photography. He also liked to detail cars and did a great job at it, of course like an artist. I kept telling him he was good he could have had a good art exhibit one day. He loved nature and taking walks with his dog Winnie in the woods and by the ocean. Always sending me photos of those moments that I would enjoy. Chris was a very good cook too. And no one could clean up the place like Chris. Guys are usually slobs not Chris. He had so much to give we will miss him. Going to miss him calling me "Aunt Val" the way he did. I am comforted to know he is asleep, resting until God brings him back in the resurrection and we can enjoy life together on a paradise earth. Aunt Val

“ Chris was one of my best friends, we have known each other for over 20 years. Chris was always a very giving man, many items in my house were gifts from him and his mom. I had the pleasure to see Chris one last time a few weeks ago, we traded baseball cards, talked Crypto and ate dinner. Chris was always a witty person, I cannot believe he is gone and we will miss him dearly. Prayers for his mom right now they were really close.
