“ I’ve known Chris as long as I’ve known my best friend since we were 13 - which has nearly been 20 years. Chris was such a cool Dad, he was practically my own Dad I was over at their house so much. Through our softball years, Chris was always there to cheer us on and more than likely yell at us for not catching the ball or striking out, haha! But he was there and supported us through our journey in sports no matter how poorly we played lol. When you’ve known someone for so long, there are just so many memories it’s hard to put it all into words. I just know that Chris was a great man and a great Dad and he fought harder than anyone I know. Rest easy Chris, I know you’re blasting Beastie Boys and drinkin a Becks somewhere. Bazaa, Chickaa, Ka-ra-tay. Love you.
