“ *Uncle Marty and Aunt Janet,
I'm truly sorry for your loss of Christopher. I remember when I spent the night and Christopher had his on bed in your room. I remember all the racing and how excited he was to see his dad race. I remember Church and how he would doze off. I'm at a loss for words. Prayers for y'all.*

*Love,

“ I am saddened to hear about Chris. With all of the students that I have taught in 25 years Chris sticks out in more ways than one. Most importantly he sticks out as a genuinely kind person. He was a great barometer. If I was saying the right things you could tell it by his facial expressions. The same thing was true when I was saying the wrong thing. If they had ever had tuba Olympics I believe he would've won hands down. I clearly remember seeing Chris running with his sousaphone when a lightning bolt struck across the sky on cue during the playing of Thunder Rolls by Garth Brooks. It what is a joy to see him go on to be in the marching band at Georgia Southern University. Prayers to his great family. Rest In Peace Chris.

“ To the family of Chris Wiles, I express my sincerest condolences from Mr. Rayner, one of Chris's band directors at Sandy Creek HS when he was a student. I will always remember his great attitude and "gentle giant" spirit. Although I do not know his wife Stacy, I do know Mr. and Mrs. Wiles, who were probably one of the greatest sets of band parents we could have had at Sandy Creek! My prayers are with you all and know that Chris is doing well. As a quick memory, I always loved to see Chris spin and swing his tuba around like a toy in the stands while playing "Old School!"

“ Our family have so many wonderful memories of our 'Tiny". He was a wonderful friend to Bucky. Memories at our house, memories at Lake Sinclair to meeting up with him at Biloxi. What a wonderful young man. He touched our lives and will now live in our hearts. Bucky Hendrix's family is better off because of him.
