“ Barbara,

So sorry for your lost. Your mother was the greatest. I remember all of us gathering at your house and your mom and dad would put up with our "girl stuff". God will give you and your sister the love and comfort needed during this time. If you need me you know how to reach me. Love you bunches.

“ Dear Barbara and Pat,

You are in our prayers! What a special lady your Mom was. I have so many wonderful memories of her and her fervent love. She and my mom were close loving cousins. We know that you took loving care of her just as she did her dear mom. May God strengthen you and sustain you with His Spirit during this time of transition and grief. With much love, Carol & Neale Hightower
