“ 6 years later and I still think about you .. you were more than my best friend but my brother. The tears I shed still feel fresh as though it was only yesterday. The way you went broke my heart and it changed me forever. I love you Cody and I miss you.

“ I still remember the day your mom and dad showed me the pictures of you and your sister saying that you both were their children. The moment they saw you they fell in love with you both. We, Jesse and myself, fell in love with you at that same moment. You will always be with us and loved for your spirit, compassion, the child we knew and the man you were becoming. We miss you so much and will pray each and everyday for you and those who loved you unconditionally. I love you Cody!

“ Resa, Steve & Family,

There are no words that adequately express my sorrow. Your heart and home are always full of love. You open your door for anyone who wants to enter. You always have the biggest, brightest smiles on your faces. I love you all.

“ Steve and Resa, there are no words that can be said to bring you relief. But perhaps if you know what he meant to me and my family it will help.

Cody was a burst of energy that was child like yet mature at times. When he stayed here the last time the pool was open for business. I saw him about to do something overly energetic so I stepped outside and he immediately said "go back inside Mimi" I'm not doing nothin' and he took a running leap and into the pool he went; smiling and raising his eyebrows with that look on his face. He was our heart and laughter and we miss him dearly. So be comforted by the good times and the times that made him smile. Remember him all dressed up and going to the prom. May the God of your salvation and help enfold you in His arms and continue to bless and keep you.

“ Cody will always be a ray of sunshine to my teaching at ECMS. He was always a polite and impressive young fellow. Everyday he came into my class, he brought into the room a glow of light in his beautiful smile. I will always hold a special prayer for him in his new life and hope one day to be able to witness his smile again!

“ First of all my condolences to your family for your loss. I am deeply sorry for your loss. My heart goes out to the family. I was a viciously attacked by Trenton Anderson in April of 2011. I was seriously beaten by this man for no reason. I was awarded 8,000 from the state for him to pay but trentons probation would never take action on him or lock him up for not complying. If Fulton county would have locked him up for not paying me or following his conditions which I have tried and tried to get them to do this would not have happened. Please call me if I can help your family at all. May god rest codys soul and comfort the family. My cell number is 404-273-9771. Please call....

“ Cody was a good god brother to me we had fun memories like going to the movies hang out at his house almo almost every week end ill either spend the weekend with him or he would spend the weekend with me so it was like if you didn't see him you want see me either or reverse we did so many things together i cannot name off my head we went way back since seventh grade we had a class together we begin talking as friends and we. Got. To cool that i started coming to his house and he came to mines i got close to him and almost half of the family so i did felt i was adopted and born into the family although Cody struggle with frustration trials and tribulations he was still a good god brother friend he was just to confuse on where to go but overall i seen he had potential of changing his ways and becoming better. But i say he is in a better place and god will get him on the right track he needs to be on.. i enjoy every minute Second hour day year with Cody and his family which i call them my family as well nothing will not never change im still going to be in the family forever and that's a life time i loved cody as well nothing will change so to my second family i love yall with all my heart and soul im hear to stay LOVE DARIUS SLOAN

“ Cody was friends with my daughter and I met him on several occasions. He was always very nice, respectful, and I admired his goals he discussed with me. It is a terrible shame the world has lost such a nice young man with a promising future.
