“ Ms. Davis was one of my instructors at Grady School of Nursing. Thanks to her, I and others before and after me were privileged to be a part of an elite group of nurses. Thank you, Ms. Davis!

“ Ms. Davis was one of my instructors at Grady. She was a great lady. We are so sorry for your loss. We had an all class reunion this weekend but did not know of her death. It has been posted for all of our classmates to view!

“ Miss Davis was one of first and favorite nursing school instructors. I can still hear her calling my name ever so quietly. She was a very dedicated teacher. We all loved her. My thoughts are with the family.

“ I was also a student of Miss Davis when she was an instructor at Grady Memorial Hospital. She taught basic nursing and I remember one instance when I was trying to learn how to make a proper bed. She told me that a dime should be able to be bounced on a properly made bed. I remember snarling about it but learned how to make a very tight bed and my patients surely benefited from her instruction!

“ Please know that Ms. Davis will always be remembered for her skills in working with Freshman Nursing Students at Grady Memorial Hospital. She was a major topic of conversation at our ALL class reunion this past weekend. My sincere thoughts and prayers are with the family and friends during this sad time

“ Miss Davis was one of my Nursing Instructors at Grady Memorial Hospital School of Nursing in Atlanta in 1970. She was strict but kind, and we quickly learned from her that there is no place for anything but the best when taking care of patients. Over the years, she turned many naive 18 year old kids into great nurses !

“ To the Davis, Norris and Crawley families, I am sad to hear of Ms. Emogene's passing. The memories came back of times we shared through many different times through Shadnor Baptist, in Union City and the Historical Society of Union City. She was such a sweet lady. The love of the Lord she shared with others I hope will comfort you during this time. May God give you Peace during this time of her passing.

“ Great memories of Emogene. Our family attended Shadnor Baptist Church with the Davis family. I had the opportunity to ride with her to Atlanta from Union City while I was a student at Georgia State University. Emogene was a wonderful example of a Christian lady who loved her Lord and her family and friends. May God bless and sustain each of you during this time.
