“Connie, it was truly a pleasure to have been one of your caregivers over these past few years. We had such a beautiful bond. You knew when I was down. You would ask if everything was ok. You never wanted anyone to care for you besides me. I knew your routine and how you liked things. I knew if you didn't like dinner to warm up something Brittnay had purchased. We celebrated your first steps down the hall. We talked about your love for horses. I can still remember picking out your clothes and what were your favorites. You became family to me. You knew I was in school to become a nurse and God showed you that I finished by placing you back in my life a few ago. You called my name just like old times. You never forgot me and I will NEVER forget you. You fought so long and hard. Your strength is one to admire. I know you're now resting in peace with the rest of the angels. Kiss my granny for me and tell her I said hi. I love you Connie Davis. Continue to sleep peacefully 🙏🕊️

“I really don't even know how to start this. Connie was my next door neighbor for many years. We were both single parents, working hard to raise our children and shared updated news as they grew up and moved away. Connie was such a sweet, loving, determined and strong person. Her faith never waivered to the very end. Today I stepped outside in the back yard and the most beautiful large butterfly did a wonderful dance, gliding across the yard and disappearing into the woods. Rest well, Connie. Job well done, sweetie.

“ I will think of Connie with her beautiful smile and hold that in my heart. Gary and I send our heartfelt condolences to Britney, Fay, Carol and all her family. I made one trip to Atlanta many years ago and laugh at the memory of Connie asking her Mom if she could have some sweet tea. Her accent was so strong to my norther ears. Peace to you all.
