“ Nancy & Kelly:
*This truly saddens me. I cannot imagine how you both are feeling. Con will be sorely missed. He always brought a smile to my face and left me in great spirits on the worst of days. I will miss his pleasant personality and his hugs. I will lift you all in prayer. The Lord will carry you all through this valley. See you in heaven Con! God Bless,

“ Nancy & family,

I was so sorry to hear of your husbands passing. Death is truly an enemy. My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this very difficult time.

“ To the love ones of Conrad I send my condolences. I am so sorry. Death is describe as "the last enemy" in the Bible. It is a time of distress. With the love and support of others our grief will soften. Jesus assures us "the hour is coming which all those in the grave will hear his voice and come out". There is going to be a resurrection! This will not completely take away your grief, but by meditating on God's promises you can find real hope to keep going. If you would welcome more comfort please visit www.jw.org

To the Bollinger Family. My very deepest sympathy for your loss. I just happened upon this today (3/19/22) by accident. So sorry I was unaware until now. I knew Conrad in Ft Lauderdale and so enjoyed our many conversations. I know he will be missed by many!
