“ Oh, how we loved Ginny. Even though we didn't visit often after Bob's death, we ran into each other from time to time at the grocery store or our voting site. I remember the strong, sweet and loving hugs she gave. Now our Father is hugging Ginny, and her family and friends. May God bless all of you in this sad time and comfort you with sweet memories of this "sweet, sweet spirit." It was, indeed, our honor to have known this wonderful lady.

“ Ginny was a beautiful, kind and joyous person. She was a light in my life and I will miss her so much. She always made me feel special. Like when I mentioned an old Christmas carol, "Bring a Torch, Jeanette Isabella" which I loved, but couldn't find on CD, she found the music and played it for the offertory on Christmas. I wish I could hear it again as she played it. She encouraged me to be a part of her exercise group and I enjoyed it so much. After meeting some of you, I can see she left her spirit for us in her beautiful family. May God comfort you with loving memories.
