“ When our amazing God made Cindy He knew she was a one-of-a-kind special person! No one could make you laugh like Cindy could! No one was as true a friend as Cindy was! No one loved her family like Cindy did! No one could light up a room as Cindy would when she walked into it! And no one had Cindy's contagious laugh and huge smile!! 😊 She was such a love and I will always miss her the rest of my life! May God bless Larry and Tabby and Ashley and the grandchildren and Buster and bring them peace knowing that one day they will see her shining face again and be with her for eternity in Paradise!

Love always, Mary Beth ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ I was saddened to hear only recently of Cindy’s passing. She was a fun and sweet person. We had been friends since Church camp back in the 60’s. My condolences to her family.

“ It is impossible to name only one favorite memory of Cindy. She has been my forever friend since third grade. She and Carolyn and I used to like ending our “girls nights out” laughing at The Waffle House. She was so funny, so fun, so loyal, so REAL—I was blessed beyond measure to have her as my friend.

“ I surprised her on her 60th birthday and took her to Las Vegas. We had so much fun. I took her to see Bette Midler. I remember she cried because she was so excited to see Bette in person.

“ I have so many memories with Cindy it's almost impossible to select one. Our times at the condo in Panama City were precious. We always had so much fun. But one favorite was when we were in high school and so many of us had gone to Daytona (with chaperones of course). We were at the pier dancing and a guy came up to her and said “ya wanna sit or ya wanna dance?” She ,of course, wanted to dance. But we laughed about that for years. I guess you would have to have heard his accent. Very very southern. She was like a sister to me and I miss her terribly. love you all very much. 💔
