“ David was an outstanding thread in the tapestry of life. But sadly the tapestry is left unfinished. It is now up to those he leaves behind to finish the tapestry by never forgetting his unique sense of humor, his gentle manner, and acceptance of his fate without complaining. David has been healed and his problems are over. It is now up to his family to establish a new normal remembering that David will always be with you in spirit. To Barbara, Charlie, Bethany, and David's entire family, I pray that you will find peace in the promises of our Christian faith. Think of it not as "goodbye" but "until we meet again". David loved all of you.
