David "Big Daddy" Crupi was one of my truest lifelong friends.....having worked with him at GM for 10 years then being his truck salesman for 36 years. I'll never forget his grand smile and his humor.....he visited me lots at the dealership and always made my and many others day when he came by.....he would light up the showroom....I admired David and his love of his family. I kept telling him he should write a book on "How to treat a Lady". I heard countless stories of his love for Kathy and his children...He was a true Gentleman and I feel honored to have known David for most my entire life.He will be greatly missed...RIP David...I'll treasure the memories..

“ Cathy,

Torre just sent your message about David's passing. I am so terribly sad for your loss. I have very fond memories of my cousin as we grew up as he always kept me laughing with his antics.

I wish you all of the love, peace and healing possible during this very sad time.

It's been nearly 5 years since Dave went to heaven, but i miss him like it was yesterday. I still think about my best friend so often. Just the other day i took a nap and when i woke up i felt like i had spent the afternoon with him because i had just had the greatest fun with him in a dream like i had done a zillion times before. He and i and our friend Joe had just spent the last couple of hours laughing, joking around and just "cutting up" like we had done nearly every time we were together since we first met.

I know my friend is enjoying heaven to the fullest. One day I'll see him again there and we will pick up with the good times just like we never missed a day.

Love you buddy,

Alan

“ David was a devoted husband and father and valued friend of the many people he met over his lifetime. He loved his BBQ and the excitement of race day and I don't believe I've ever met a person with more luck when he would travel to one of his favorite places to vacation, Las Vegas.

I'll always remember the stories about his travels with Cathy to Vegas and good times they shared at the Venetian Hotel, the MGM and many other five star resorts. One thing is for sure,, David lived life to the fullest.

Today, we will gather to celebrate David's life and share the many memories, memories of a life that was rich, full and well lived.

Dave, your memory will always live on in hearts of family and friends.

“ *My thoughts are with the family as you struggle through this time. David was larger than life. He always had a presence, a big smile, and often a well-rehearsed joke. He'd push himself back in his chair with his legs flying out in-front of him laughing at the cleverness. He enjoyed staying busy and set to his work, always a plan with some ideas that just kept growing. What joy it brought him. He enjoyed a good BBQ and worked to always perfect it. He enjoyed his music, forever overloading his phone and ipod. He loved a good game of football or a good race. He was completely tickled when he got a deer during hunting season and loved to share all the details. He always made sure to include his friends during deer season. He got very excited about his newest truck and even more excited about each new toy that lit up, twirled, or made sounds. He could hardly contain his excitement as he showed the newest toy to his grand children. He enjoyed his friends and always had a story. He marched to his own drum and pushed onward always. I'm certain that will never end. With loving memory,

“ David married my best friend, Cathy Cook. He showed me how a gentleman was to treat a lady from high school through the years of life together as husband and wife, mother and father, and grandparents. A finer man few could ever know. My deepest love to Cathy, David, Dawn, and all of their beloved family.

“ *My condolences to all the family. As one of David's (and John's) football coaches at Lakeshore High School, I remember a young David Crupi who was a 100 per center on the football field and such a gentleman off the field. As I remember David I can see his warm smile and remember his pleasant personality. What a joy to coach him and watch him give his all to the team effort in practices and games. May God bless the family during this time of loss.
