“ *Dearest Aunt Beverly, Uncle David, and family,
I couldn't have been more surprised when Cyndi called me today told me that our dear Alan had passed on. He was a quirky character, but we loved him all the same, and he will be dearly missed. I know that God will be holding you all in his loving hands, close to his heart, and help you thru this sad time. It's comforting to know that Alan's soul has already gone home to be with his heavenly Father. I love you all, and will be seeing you in the next few days.*

*Love,
Shawn*

“ *Uncle David and Aunt Beverly,
We are so sad for you. We know everyone will miss Alan. Although he kept to himself a lot, he was friendly and thoughtful and had much to give to those who sought his friendship. We wish we could be there with you, but we will be there in spirit.*
