

David James Fuller Sr.

October 12, 1939 - June 11, 2025

David James Fuller, Sr., a beloved husband, father, brother, and friend, passed away peacefully on June 11, 2025, in Gay, Georgia, at the age of 85. Born on October 12, 1939, youngest of five children, David was raised in College Park, Georgia. He lived a life marked by dedication to his family, his work, and his passions.

David retired as an electrician from the IBEW Local 613/Ford Motor Company, where he was known for his strong work ethic and commitment to excellence. His colleagues remember him as a man of integrity and skill, always willing to lend a hand or share his knowledge.

A lifelong Harley Davidson enthusiast, David found joy and freedom on the open road. He cherished the many trips he took with his motorcycle friends, creating memories that will be treasured by all who rode alongside him.

David was preceded in death by his parents, Columbus Gary Fuller and Flora Swann Batchelder Fuller, brother, Columbus Chapman "Bud" Fuller, and sisters, Mary Swann Fuller Jones, Sarahann Fuller Ellis and son, David James Fuller, Jr.

He is survived by his loving and devoted wife, Louise Brock Fuller of Gay, Georgia; his loving son, Hubert Gary Fuller of College Park, Georgia; and his dear sister, Florence Fuller McDonald Eberhart of Dahlonega, Georgia, a grandson, and three generations of nieces and nephews who will continue to cherish his memory.

David had a humble nature that made people feel comfortable and loved. His warmth and kindness touched everyone he met, leaving a lasting impression of care and affection.

Though he is no longer with us, his legacy will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.
