“ I grew up with David just two houses apart from childhood through grammar school and part of high school till his family moved to Fairburn. The adventures and shenanigans we lived could only be experienced through living in the 50’s and 60’s in suburban America, from just hanging with the other neighbor kids to pestering Danny and his friends. There was one time we was playing in the woods behind his house which is now Campcreek Pkwy., we set a small fire and before we knew it it got out of hand as we ran back to his house to get a small bowl of his dogs (Pepper) water bowl to run back and try to put it out, needless to say by then about an acre of woods were on fire and the fire department had to come put it out ! Yes we got in trouble for that one but lived to another day, we had so much fun back then but when you heard his mother yell to the top of her lungs “DAVID CHARLES !” we knew we were in trouble :) I’m so sorry that life got in the way and we drifted apart and lost contact.

*Thank you David for being such a big part of my childhood and hopefully we can catch up on other stories at a later date,
Godspeed my friend*
