“ David will be greatly missed. I can not come to Heritage today due to my job. I pray for the family and that they have peace.

“ It was a great day when David joined our Primetimer Life Group. Before that, I only knew him as the consummate Greeter at Heritage Christian Church. He was always dressed so nice with every hair in place and the sweetest smile on his face and a bulletin in his hand. After joining our group, i got to know him personally and loved this wonderful, devoted Godly man.

“ My deepest regrets go out to the Scoggins family. Death is never an easy thing to cope with. God will soon put an end to all human suffering, including death. God also gives us the hope of being able to see our lost loved ones again, here on earth, under perfect conditions. May the God of all comfort be with the family in the days to come.-Revelation 21:4, Acts 24:15, Isaiah 25:8.

“ Mr. David was so very special to me. He was a light in the darkness. I remember the gifts he gave when he learned of my stroke. Oh, how he blessed my life! Mr. David, I will see you in Heaven and hug your neck! I love you!! God bless your family!

God bless,

“ I first met David working along side him feeding the homeless in Atlanta. From that time we remained good friends, I will miss him as a church greeter. I am thankful for God planting David in our church and in my life.

“ David,

I am going to miss receiving your warm greeting every Sunday morning. I have only known you for five years, but you always welcomed me and Gail as if we were long lost friends. I will never forget that on our first visit to Heritage a number of years ago, it was your smiling face that made us feel we were home. May you enjoy your reward as you enter into the Joy of our Lord.

“ David.....you will be sorely missed! Seeing your bright and cheery smile each Sunday at church made us feel welcomed everytime we walked through the doors. You always had a kind word and you were so handsome in all those sport coats! May your kindness be forever remembered and may God bless you now as you have blessed all of us. See you on the other side of this life....we'll be looking for you! :)
