“ I have never met Mrs. Rabbitt, however, I have had the pleasure of working with her amazing daughter, Carolyn Collinsworth so I can probably say she was an awesome person which shines through her daughter. God Bless all of the family for such a loss. But we know heaven got another Angel...

“ Since moving to Georgia in 2003, we have been blessed to know Deanne. She was truly a woman who loved and served her Heavenly Father. She had such a sweet and loving personality. She will surely be missed, but know she is rejoicing in the presence of her Lord. Mike & Betty Lou Mann

“ Dear Lew and family,
Deanne was my special friend for over fifty years and I loved her dearly. She taught me how to be a better wife, mother and friend. She taught me how to love the Lord and the Word. I look forward to spending eternity with her. My deepest sympathy to all of you and much love.

Dee, as she was known in our household, is part of my longest memories—longest because they extend back to my childhood, but continue through my youth and now to my distinctly not-youth. Her warm smile, quick wit and simple practicality warm all those memories. She was a great woman. Praying for you all.
