

Deborah (Debbie) Landers

October 11, 1952 - January 2, 2025

Deborah "Debbie" Landers, a cherished wife, mother, sister, and grandmother, passed away peacefully in Jackson, GA. Born in Atlanta, GA, she was the daughter of the late Nolan Cecil and Lois Breedlove. She was also preceded in death by her beloved sister, Mildred Sue McMillen.

Debbie dedicated her professional life to serving the community as the Benefits Director at the Georgia Department of Labor, where her commitment and diligence left a lasting impact.

She is survived by her devoted husband, Eddie Landers, and her loving daughters, Kelley Navaja and her husband Emanuel, and Crystal Landers. She will be dearly missed by her sister, Pamela Kay Breedlove House, and her brother, David Nolan Breedlove, along with his wife Suzanne. Her legacy continues through her treasured grandchildren, Lauren Sohra Holcomb, Cameron Landers, Ryan Navaja, and Eric Navaja. Debbie also leaves behind many nieces and nephews, who will remember her fondly.

A memorial service to celebrate Debbie's life will be held on Saturday, February 8, 2025, at 3 o'clock in the Chapel of Parrott Funeral Home. Family and friends are invited to gather one hour prior to the service to offer their condolences.

Debbie will be remembered for her warmth, kindness, and unwavering dedication to her family and community. She will be greatly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Our daughters grew up together & enjoyed all with all their parties, school functions even talent shows with them! Debbie was an inspirational, strong, fun, very giving friend & Loved helping the homeless year after year which I missed out on the many times to come help with but now it's missing part even more knowing I won't ever get to see her again until Heaven! She will Always be like family & All. My prayers are with yall knowing God has the answer to it all esp. helping All through it! I Love you all & all these Beautiful memories & pictures!

“ I remember when we were younger, going over to the big white house and staying for days! Debbie became a second mom to me for many years! I can still see her smile and hear the sound of her laughter. Her spirit was so warm and inviting and filled with love! She always made everyone feel welcomed. She will be missed!!
