“ I have known Debbie 43 years, and recently visited her in the hospital. She was a very special friend and we talked on the phone for hours in our younger years. So very sorry for our loss. So very glad she is now healed and look forward to continuing our conversation in heaven one day.

“Debbie was a friend from Gordon High School, & we worked together on many of our reunion committees. She was so special! She was always kind & considerate, taking into consideration what would work best for everyone. She was hard working & could always be counted on to achieve whatever task she endeavored to accomplish. She was a great team player! We all loved Debbie! My prayers for comfort are with Teresa & the whole family. 🙏❤️🙏❤️🙏

“Debbie was one of my good friends in high school, and she faithfully volunteered on the GHS High School Reunion Committee for many years. She was responsible for ensuring a great experience for two of our reunions at the Northeast Hilton Hotel several years ago. She was always so supportive of her friends, and I will miss her very much.

“ Ms Deb, we have know each other since we moved next door in 1995. Kevin brought us together. Each time we talked you would tell me all about your boys. If they remember nothing else you loved them with a passion. I loved hearing you laugh and the many times we had cinnamon rolls and coffee on Christmas morning. God bless you Debbie , heaven has received a beautiful Angel. Marie
