“ It deeply saddened me to find out DD has passed. I last saw him in the Fayette Pavilion early March, I was visiting my family in Senoia. Little did I know it would be my last. He has and will always be an inspiration to me in my quest for protection in art. He now has Heavens Pallet to create his blessed talents. Every time I pick up my paint brush I will be thing of him. God bless him and his family...Dennis Pasch (student)

“ Kay & Family,

As you know, D.D. was like our very own brother. He was a sweet, gentle man, and a fabulous artist. We are blessed to have his artwork in every room of our home...such a treasure! Please know we are here for you, and lifting you in prayer every day. We love you all!

“ In tribute to Uncle D.D., a truly good man with a kind personality. He possessed the gift of being a good listener, a quality which is getting ever harder to find in this world today. Pray that there will be more like him to come. It is wonderful to know we will see him again one day.

“ Dear Kay,

D.D. was such a sweet Christian and a good example to the people of our church, as he attended when he was not able. But thats how he loved the lord. I hope you can rest now, and realize how much you are loved by so many.

And before long you can think of so many good many good memories to help you.

My love,

Frances

“ I am so sorry to hear about DDs death. He was a fine man and a wonderful artist, and a good friend of my parents, Gwen and Bill Gazaway. I so enjoyed his art and friendship at the NCAA meetings, and his workshop I took a few years back. He was a kind man and I am sorry for your loss and pray for your comfort and healing. He is up there with some fine artists and friends now, including my parents. I can see Mom, him, and JO Sewell painting together. May God bless you with his comfort and love.
