My heartfelt condolences to each of you! What a precious Godly woman she was! Her life exuded the love of Jesus!! My thoughts and prayers are with you. I'm saddened there will not be a public funeral but you wouldn't have found a place big enough for one anyway because so many of us loved, respected and appreciated her!

“ The church I attend, Bethlehem Baptist in Fairburn, has a group called the Singing Classics and we would go to Country Garden once a month to sing for the residents there. I always enjoyed seeing Mrs. Anderson and her smile. I have missed going during the Covid-19 time. So sorry for your loss.
