

Delores Norton

July 21, 1940 - March 28, 2026

Delores Norton, a beloved mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, passed away peacefully on March 28, 2026, in Fairburn, Georgia. Born on July 21, 1940, in Charleston, West Virginia, Delores lived a full and meaningful life of 85 years.

Delores was a caring and loving person, always giving of herself to others. Her compassionate nature shone brightly in her work as a waitress at Cracker Barrel, where she found joy in serving and connecting with people.

Beyond her professional life, Delores had a passion for crochet, creating beautiful pieces that reflected the warmth of her spirit. She was dedicated to caring for those around her, finding happiness in nurturing her family and offering a helping hand to anyone in need.

Delores was preceded in death by her husband, Jesse McCoy, with whom she shared many cherished years. She leaves behind a loving family who will continue to honor her memory: daughters Teena Steele (Thomas) and Patricia Ray; son Robert "Bobby" Johnson (Susie); grandchildren Christina, Chasity, Valerie, Kristen (Keith), Michael (Ashley), Josh, Matt, Kaitlyn, Christian ; great-grandchildren Christian, Jasmine, Jaden, Rosie, Gavin, Olivia, Colton, Destiny, Blake, Aubrey, Taylor, Scarlet, Juniper, Willow, and Farrah. Delores is also survived by her sisters, Gloria Kirk (Robert) and Linda Pyles, and her brother Wayne White (Linda).

Her legacy of love and kindness will be carried on by all who knew her, and she will be deeply missed.
