“ Deepest sympathies to all Jim's family, especially to Meg. If I had a nickel for everytime Jim said how great Meg is... I'll miss Jim and his stories and jokes. Glad I "got" his humor, it sure made the work day brighter and certainly, much more interesting.

“ Meg, I speak for all who have enjoyed your writing so much, and your sharing the beautiful experiences of your life. (I think of the 4 days between your meeting Jim and becoming engaged!) Our sympathies to you and we hope very much that we will see you again in writing class. Lovingly, Carolyn

“ Jim, what a gentle giant, such a soft hearted, big hearted man who cared deeply and enjoyed life fully. Jim will be so missed and I can't imagine lunch at work without him and his colorful stories. Meg I am so sorry for your loss, my thoughts and prayers are with you and the rest of Jim's family.

“ Meg, I am so sorry for your loss although I know words cannot begin to express the loss you are feeling. Speaking as one who lost her son who was the same age as Jim, I remember my first thoughts upon finding out ... I didn't know I could hurt so much ...

“ Jim was a true friend and a dear, dear soul. I will miss him with every ounce of my being. He never said a false word, and always cared about others. I know how much Meg meant to him, as well as his pets at home. He talked to me often about his travels. He was such a kind and gentle man. My heart aches that he is gone so soon, and I hope you know how much we all loved him here in Texas. God be with you in this painful time. Jim is with the angels now, and probably telling them some story about his motorcycle, dogs, or the trip he had planned next. God bless his soul, he was a wonderful guy.
