“ Gwen and family, so saddened to hear of Dennis' passing. He was a wonderful gentleman with a loving and giving heart. Always had a smile on his face and a kind word. Please know all of you are in our thoughts and prayers. So sorry we couldn't be at his service. We know he's not in any more pain and is happy, singing and playing the piano with his daddy, grandmother and all the other many loved one that have gone on. Love ya and will continue to keep you in our prayers.

I'll never forget you Dennis, the happy times we had riding horses together, me and you and Glenda. You always had a smile on your face. Our going to church together and hearing your beautiful voice singing into the Lord. What a sweet man you were. Until we meet again my friend and brother in Christ. I love you!❤️

“ Mrs. Gwen, I so sorry of the loss of Dennis. While I only got to work with him for about a month, before his illness, I still have so many fond memories of him. Of course I also remember the trip to Myrtle Beach back when we were both young and our families went camping. Dennis was so talented in so many ways, from arranging flowers to his musical talents. We've missed his presence at Murphey since his illness, but we will forever miss him going forward. I'm praying for comfort for you and the whole family. Always put your faith in God and he will hold you up and make you strong,

While we only met briefly at Rebekah Baptist Church, it was obvious that God blessed Dennis with talent as well as kindness. It was always a joy to be in his presence. My dad (Frank Fulghum) a member of the church passed last September, and I know the sorrow and pain you feel, but pray that God will lift your spirit and you'll find peace in memories. My sympathies to the family. Vickie Moody
