“ My memory of my Sister is many..She has been my Mother,Sister.Protector,Caregiver who unconditionally and selflessly has given of herself not only to me but to all those that knew her.She has housed &,fed lots of people,Done things for us all that weren't always pleasant.Things she would lose sleep over,,causing difference in her life from us all..She married the love of her life,became a Mother and fiercely loved her child and loved her siblings as her own...She will be remembered for her honesty,her compassion for others.If she didn't agree with you she let you make your own decision.She loved us all and we loved her..She will be missed..May she be Flying High with The Angels..I love you & want to thank you for bettering my life..

“ It is with a very heavy heart that I share condolences to all of Diane’s sisters. Diane was the Mom figure and all of the times/events that I was a part of she treated me just like one of the sisters. She had a quite demeanor and sweet spirit. Praying for peace in the days and weeks ahead.
