“ She was one of 11 children and the last of a strong generation. She was the middle child and the last one standing. She was strong and courageous. To fight to remember even though she knew that it could be a losing battle. I hope that out of everything we make you proud that we were blessed to be your daughters. You will always walk with me and we will never truly be alone. We love you Mama. Find the peace that your soul needed to rest.

“ Dixie and I lived just down the street from one another when our girls were in school. Connie and Kathi were good friends and were back and forth playing and having sleepovers. Dixie became a good friend. She was always so even-tempered and kind. We moved away from Fairburn and we did not do a good job of staying in touch. However, I have sweet memories of those days when we were young mothers. They were happy times. RIP my friend.

“ Connie I'm so sorry to hear about Dixie. Dixie and I share many happy memories growing up. We often spent time at our grandparents, Jim and Annie White's house and enjoyed playing in our "play house" and fishing with Mama White! You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers,
