“ I was so blessed to work with both Don and Dona during their years as house parents at Hope Harbor in Claremore, Oklahoma. Their wisdom, kindness, sense of humor, and spiritual maturity made an extraordinary impact on the teens they shared their hearts with during this time. I cannot begin to express the sadness I felt at hearing of Don's passing. I know that Don is at home with our Lord, but I also know how deeply he is missed by his friends and especially by his family. My prayers are with Dona and with all of Don's family members and other loved ones.

“ As minister for the Blue Starr church of Christ in Claremore, Oklahoma, it was a blessing to know Don and Dona while they served as house parents for Hope Harbor Children's Home. They served in the girls cottage and as you can imagine, had such a mature spiritual influence upon some impressionable lives. The congregation was also blest by Don's teaching in our adult classes. His joy in teaching Ecclesiastes was rich and filled with Don's many experiences in life. We hated to say farewell to them as they moved closer to family, but knew their family would be greatly blest as well. Our condolences to Dona and family. Thank you for sharing Don with us and coming our way!

May my fellow preaching brother enjoy the bounty of such a rich life!

With Love,

“ I’m Jeanie Ladymon Dallas. Don’s mom and my mom were sisters. Being almost 4 yrs older than Don, I remember when he was born. I remember the story, which he recalled recently in a message to me, how my mom saved his life by giving him mouth to mouth resuscitation when he was found not breathing just after he was born. Our families spent lots of times together through the years. They were either coming to visit the country cousins, or we were counting the days til our visit in the city. Those are memories I’ll always cherish and do reflect on all the good times now and then. May God be with Dona, Cindy, Donnie and families and give them calm and peace in the days ahead. Loved our Don. He’s now with his Mom, Dad, and Sister again. Sure miss all of them. Love and prayers, Jeanie.

“ My heart goes out to Dona and family in the passing of our brother, Don. Don was the pulpit minister at the Northside church in Jasper, Ga when I was in my high school years, and made an indelible impression on me. We was still our minister when I left for Freed-Hardeman and his preaching and personal influence were a part of what made me want to preach. I will always be indebted to Don for not only his good, sound teaching and preaching but for his friendship extended toward a shy, high school student. It is no little consolation to me to know that Don is now experiencing the sweet peace and para-dise he preached about all those years. I hope to see Don on the other side of the River!

“ When our children were young, we considered who would be their guardians if something happened to us. Of all our relatives and friends, we felt Don and Dona were the ones we wanted to rear our children. Fortunately, it wasn't necessary but we felt comfortable knowing the children would be in a good Christian home and appreciated Don's willingness to take four children if need be. That's what I thought of Don. Our sympathy to all the family. Uncle Andy and Aunt Georgia Musgrave.

“ Cindy and Donnie, our family grew up with your family coming to the farm. The second they got there, your Granny would unload a Car Load of food along with your Aunt Carol Ann and your Dad and the city kids and country kids would run wild, play in the woods and barn, and sleep out on the hay trailer. We were so excited when we knew they were coming. So many special memories attached to those days.

Love and sweetest memories of your Dad, Linda.

“ Donnie,
So very sorry to hear of your father's passing. He was a great man who did great work and his influence will be missed by so many. I still recall the days when your parents would come by station 4 and visit. I always enjoyed talking with your father.

“ He felt the touch of hands so warm and tender. They were leading him in the paths that he must trod. He had no fear for Jesus walked beside him. He was sheltered safe within the arms of God. He heard the call coming down from heaven's portals; come on home my child that was the last mile you must trod. He fell asleep but woke in God's new heaven sheltered safe within the arms of God! I will miss my brother. He was a true Kingdom servant. Love and sympathy to Ms. Dona, Cindy, Donnie & the entire Musgrave family

Bro Don was such a good servant of the Lord and a good, good friend. Cay and I have many wonderful memories of our friendship thru the years - from movie nights at our house and then at his with Dona; both Don and Dona watching our two oldest kids while the third one was being born; companions on retreat trips; cabin mates at camp; etc. The list goes on and on. Don also served as my mentor for many, many years. His influence on me, my family as well as countless others can be attested to and will continue to live on. Don and his ministry to and for others will be sorely missed in this world. But he is home now. Much love and heart-felt condolences to Dona, Cindy, and Donnie as well as the rest of the Musgrave family, Mike and Cay Adams
