“ Jim and Juanita Hudgins send our tribute about Dorin. He was an outstanding Christian man who loved his God, country, and family. We extend our best wishes and condolences to his children - especially Eugene who has been a good friend and Christian brother.

“ My earliest memory of Uncle Dorin was the day he married Aunt Dot. All the family was gathered at the Butler home for the happy occasion, I was appointed to help serve at the reception after the exchange of vows, This was a special honor for an 8 year old, That was a happy day and the love they shared that day remained the rest of their life as an example of commitment. He never left her side in sickness or health .Often holding her hand all the night when she was hospitalized, They were truly devoted to one another. I can imagine they are hand in hand for eternity in peace, This family has lost a loving man with a gentle spirit. With deepest sympathy
