

Doris Brown McCain

January 5, 1941 - April 19, 2025

Doris Brown McCain, a beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, passed away peacefully on April 19, 2025, at the age of 84. Born on January 5, 1941, Doris lived a fulfilling life marked by dedication to her family, faith, and community.

Doris was preceded in death by her husband, Tony McCain; her parents, Richard and Josie Brown; and her brother, Kent Brown. She is survived by her loving children: daughters Monya Grantham, Kim Trentham and her husband Len, Toni Lindros and her husband Brian; and son Wiley McCain and his wife Stephanie. Her legacy continues through her cherished grandchildren: Melissa Carter and her husband Dane, Kyle Trentham, Madison Trentham, Morgan Phommasith and her husband Justin, Justin Lindros and his wife Sydney, Ava McCain, and Ellie McCain. Doris also leaves behind two adored great-grandchildren, Mason Carter and Jay Phommasith. Her surviving siblings include Don Brown and his wife Jackie, Randy Brown and his wife Linda, and Sheri Brown, widow of Ralph Brown.

Doris was a graduate of Campbell High School and attended Grady Nursing School. She dedicated many years of service as an office manager at US Machine and Tool, from which she eventually retired. Her interests included gardening, bird watching, and reading—pastimes she enjoyed throughout her life.

A woman of faith, Doris was an active member of both Forest Hills Baptist Church and Tyrone Methodist Church during her life. After the passing of her husband, Doris moved from her home in Tyrone, GA, to Christian City at Hilltop Acres Independent Living, where she found a warm and welcoming community. In her final year, Doris resided at Monarch House, where she was lovingly cared for until her passing.

Doris was a devoted mother and grandmother, affectionately known as "Gran" by her grandchildren, who loved spending time with her at her pool. Her warmth, kindness, and generosity left an indelible mark on all who knew her.

A service to celebrate Doris's life will be held on Saturday, May 3, 2025, at 11 o'clock in the Chapel of Parrott Funeral Home. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service at Parrott Funeral Home.
